Detailed Action

Objection to the Disclosure

37 CFR 1.163

The following is a quotation of section (a) of 37 CFR 1.163:

(a) The specification must contain as full and complete a disclosure as possible of the plant and the characteristics thereof that distinguish the same over related known varieties, and its antecedents, and must particularly point out where and in what manner the variety of plant has been asexually reproduced. In the case of a newly found plant, the specification must particularly point out the location and character of the area where the plant was discovered.

35 USC 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

As specific to United States Plant Patent applications, the specifics of 37 CFR 1.164 (reproduced below) are controlling:

The claim shall be in formal terms to the new and distinct variety of the specified plant as described and illustrated, and may also recite the principal distinguishing characteristics. More than one claim is not permitted.

Detailed Action

In plant applications filed under 35 U.S.C 161, the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 112 are limited. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 162:

No plant patent shall be declared invalid for noncompliance with section 112 of this title if the description is as complete as is reasonably possible. The claim in the specification shall be in formal terms to the plant shown and described.

The disclosure is objected to under 35 CFR 1.163(a) and under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification presents less than a full, clear, and complete botanical description of the plant and the characteristics which define same per se and which distinguish the plant from related known cultivars and antecedents.

More Specifically:

A. Page 1, lines 19, 20, 22, and 23, Rather than stating "Pat." it appears the recitation --Patent-- would be more appropriate in these instances.

B. Page 3, line 23, Applicants state petal shape is "obtuse". Applicants should review the instant plant's petal shape as "obtuse" typically describes an apex or base shape. Correction and/or clarification is necessary.

Detailed Action

C. Applicants should set forth in the specification information relative to the instant plant's petioles including the typical and observed petiole length, diameter, and coloration with reference to the employed color chart.

D. Applicants should set forth in the specification information relative to the instant plant's buds including the typical and observed bud shape, length, diameter, and coloration with reference to the employed color chart.

E. Page 5, lines 23-34, Applicants should set forth in the specification information relative to the instant plant's petals including the typical and observed petal shape, length, width, and margin descriptor.

F. Page 5, line 27, Applicants state petal apex is "Obtuse". However, applicants have previously stated the petal apex is "rounded" on page 4, line 1. These recitations are contradictory. Correction and/or clarification is necessary.

G. Page 5, line 30, Applicants should set forth in the specification additional information relative to the instant plant's flower including the typical and observed flower depth.

Detailed Action

H. Page 6, lines 2 and 3, Applicants should set forth in the specification additional information relative to the instant plant's peduncle including the typical and observed coloration with reference to the employed color chart.

I. Page 6, line 4, Applicants should set forth in the specification additional information relative to the instant plant's sepals including the typical and observed sepal shape, length, width, apex, base, and margin descriptors, and coloration (both surfaces) with reference to the employed color chart.

J. Page 2, lines 22 and 23, U.S. Plant Patent applications serial number 10/327,033 matured into U.S. Plant Patent number 15,024 on July 20, 2004. Such should be reflected in the specification.

The above listing may not be complete. Applicant should carefully review the disclosure and import into same any corrected or additional information which would aid in botanically identifying and/or distinguishing the cultivar for which United States Plant Patent protection is sought.

Detailed Action

Claim Rejection

35 U.S.C. 112, 1st & 2nd Paragraphs

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first and second paragraphs as not being supported by a clear and complete botanical description of the plant for the reasons set forth in the Objection to the Disclosure Section above.
